

Caltech Mathematical Physics Seminar
Winter 2011–12

A New Look at Some Old Problems

H. N. MHASKAR
Cal State University Los Angeles
Caltech visiting associate

Abstract. We describe a construction of localized trigonometric polynomial kernels. We will then discuss some applications to the problem of parameter estimation in exponential sums and make a preliminary report on work in progress about a high order finite difference scheme for solving partial differential equations.